

Case Study

Summary

Link Translation has developed a partnership with Bombardier, the world's leading manufacturer of both planes and trains, and now handles the translation and localization of some of their major training/eLearning programs.

Challenges

- ✓ Localizing complex information and working within the client's content and translation management systems.
- ✓ Translating graphic presentation materials to help non-English speaking users.
- ✓ Working with extremely tight deadlines.

Solutions

- ✓ Link Translation assigned talented translators who understand the aviation industry and subject matter specialists with field certification to localize effective presentation for the client's e-learning platform.

- ✓ We handled the difficult production deadlines by creating a project workflow that compressed desktop publishing and quality assurance, connecting our linguists and desktop publishers.

- ✓ Link Translation staff was trained to work with the latest tools to translate and localize presentations used by the client's e-learning platform.

Benefits

Link Translation's knowledge of the client's industry helped us to rapidly translate and localize highly technical content.

Our production team adapted to the client's tight schedule and handled desktop publishing and quality assurance simultaneously.
